Paul Luxon's comeback keeps Bourse Trust Team on the winning track!

TRAVEL SOLUTIONS v BOURSE 2/3

League leaders Bourse trust had a narrow win over Travel Solutions. In the battle of the No 1s, Andy May showed signs of his recent break from squash and could not keep up with the pace and accuracy of Ben Rosec who ran out an easy 3-0 winner. The two Simons, Bourge and Gaudion, took their game to the wire, with Travel Solutions' Gaudion just prevailing 12/10 in the fourth to put his team 2 matches to 0 ahead against the table leader. Oliver Quarmby and Bourse captain Katie Ozard then both won 3-0 to put Bourse Trust team back at two all. Paul Luxon went 2-0 down against the young Greg Hayhurst but with some great (albeit very audible) retrieving, Luxon fought his way back and won 3-2 to give the overall game to Bourse Trust. The night has been tough for Bourse but they carried on their run of four consecutive wins.

BARCLAYS v BLACKBURN 2/3

Barclays somehow contrived to lose a match to Blackburn that it looked like they were going to win easily at an early stage. After convincing wins from Terry Hodson and Leigh Radford, it looked like Janick Radford was going to wrap up his match against Chris Ozard, but the Blackburn man somehow came through, winning the last two epic games 15-13 and 16-14. After Harry Martel then defeated Andy Parr 3-1, that left the No1s to decide the match. Barclays' Steve Le Ray started off in good form to take an early 2-0 lead. However, a courageous fight back from Dave Merrien gave him an unexpected 3-2 victory and Blackburn a narrow 3-2 overall win.

ACCENT MULTILINGUAL SERVICES v HAIRTEK 2/3

The first game on court really didn't reflect the rest of the night's results in this match. Mick Cotter used his lightening reactions to overcome an enthusiastic effort from Alex Robin. Paul Lower, in his first appearance for Accent really stepped up to the plate beating Karen Millard of Hairtek by a convincing 3 games to 1. The best match of the evening was between Hairtek's Mark Sheppard and Matt Robilliard. Sheppard looked set to win being 10-9 up in the fourth, but Accent's Robilliard came back to win this game, leaving the fifth game as the decider of both the match and the overall result for the night. Mark took an early control of this game and didn't give too much hope to a tired Robilliard, eventually triumphing 11-5. With a strong start, Steve Falla managed to take a game off Ross Kneller, but lost 3-1. This sealed the result leaving Hairtek victorious over Accent by 3 matches to 2.

OMAKISOFT v JUPITER TRUSTEES 2/3

Jupiter Trustees kicked started their season with a hard fought win over Omakisoft. The latter team's top 2, David Caine and Renwick Russell won hard fought 3-1 victories over Laurence Graham and Sam Shields. However Jupiter's lower three, Andy Biggins, Russel Michel and Gareth Banton, were clinical, each winning 3-0 to give Jupiter their first win of the season 3-2.
